

BARRIO SUPER SLEUTH TOOL KIT

To bust any misterio a Super Sleuth needs the right tools. It has taken me a long time to figure out, but I think the list below includes everything you need to bust any misterio. Good luck bustin' those misterios, Perla

Put a check inside the square once you collect the item.

- A Notebook: To write down pistas, clues.
- Tweezers: To pick up evidence, like hair or an earring.
- Flour and a Make-up Brush: So you can check for fingerprints.
- Clear Packing Tape: Once you find a fingerprint get a piece of tape and slowly put it on top of the fingerprint. The flour in the shape of the fingerprint will stick to the tape. Save it for evidence!
- Tape Measure: To measure hairs and footprints.
- Rubber Gloves: So you do not get your fingerprints on the evidence.
- Small Plastic Bags: Put the evidence inside the bag. Don't forget, one bag per item.
- Pencil: To take notes. A pencil is easy to erase if you make a mistake writing something down. (Always have extra pencils on hand.)
- Magnifying glass: To give pistas, clues, a closer look.
- Chalk: To outline evidence you uncover.
- Flashlights: To shine a light on clues, especially on nighttime adventures.
- Walkie-talkies: Optional. Good for times you are working with a sidekick or a partner.

- Dark clothes: To help keep you hidden. Works especially good at night, but sometimes you must dress so you look like everybody else. For example, if you're at a picnic wear shorts or if you're at the lake, wear a swimsuit.
- Disguises: Sometimes you might have to look like someone else, so no one will know who you are. Try a wig, a baggy shirt, sunglasses, or a baseball cap.
- A Backpack: You will need something to carry your mystery busting tools. Great mystery busters keep their kits by them at all times, because they never know when a mystery is going to come their way.
- Choose a Sidekick: You can solve mysteries on your own, but sometimes it can be more fun to have someone assisting you. For example, I have Valentine. He's my sidekick and my BFF! Besides, sometimes you can be braver if there's two of you instead of just one.
